Sunday 7 February 2010
Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Psalter Week 1
'Vocation or calling'

God calls people in many different ways and leaves them free to respond by accepting or rejecting their calling. Acceptance is not the end of the matter, but only the beginning; and all the necessary power, strength and words will be provided so long as we remain bound to Christ.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Come, let us worship the Lord. Let us bow down in the presence of our maker, for he is the Lord our God.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 6: 1-8

RESPONSE:

Before the angels I will bless you, O Lord.

SECOND READING: First Letter of St Paul to Corinthians 15: 1-11

ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Luke 5: 1-11

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Give praise to the Lord for his kindness, for his wonderful deeds towards men. He has filled the hungry with good things, he has satisfied the thirsty.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION:

God our Father,
you give us a share in the one bread and the one cup
and make us one in Christ.
Help us bring your salvation and joy
to all the world.

Thought for the Week

A good vocation is simply a firm and constant will in which the called person has to serve God in the way and in the places to which almighty God has called him.

UCM: It is with regret that due to lack of support and commitment, St. Marie's UCM has had to close. The UCM was established in St. Marie's Parish 76 years ago and for many, many years was the backbone of the Parish organising fundraising events, manning stalls, providing the "breakfast" at First Holy Communion and catering for numerous other events. Please pray for the all the past and present members of the UCM.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION: We have written to Colleen Norman conveying our gratitude for her inspiring and very successful presentation last weekend. She clearly moved many hearts. If you find that you can spare an hour a week to sit quietly in the presence of Our Lord, it's not too late! Speak to Fr. Philip – you don't have to wait until the next Appeal!

INDOOR CARBOOT SALE: Every Sunday 10am-2pm at St. Marie's Acorn Cancer Research Hall, Oak Street, Rugby (off Dunchurch Road). Tables £5. Ring Sarah 335606. Bargains galore! Proceeds to Cancer Research U.K.
