Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Psalter Week 1

Christ will come again in glory

Through his death Christ has offered the one complete sacrifice to free us from sin. No more is needed. In heaven, Christ, both divine and human, intercedes for us, and will return at the end of time to gather up his chosen ones from every part of the world. Though awesome and terrifying, it will be an occasion of rejoicing at the triumph of God's love over evil.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

The Lord says: my plans for you are peace and not disaster; when you call to me, I will listen to you, and I will bring you back to the place from which I exiled you.

FIRST READING: Daniel 12: 1-13

RESPONSE:

Preserve me, God, I take refuge in you.

SECOND READING: Letter to the Hebrews 10: 11-14. 18

ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour
when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 12: 13: 24-32

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

It is good for me to be with the Lord and to put my hope in him.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION:

Father,
may we grow in love
by the eucharist we have celebrated in memory of the Lord Jesus, who is Lord for ever and ever.
