Thought for the Week

We ourselves feel that what we are doing is a drop in the ocean, but the ocean would be less because of that missing drop.

ST. MARIE'S RUGBY

Sunday 11 October 2009
Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Psalter Week 4

The kingdom of heaven is far more valuable than riches

Possessions can be a severe obstacle to entering God's kingdom because they encourage getting rather than giving, defending rather than trusting. With all his wealth the young man still lacked something: the capacity to give his wealth away; his possessions were more precious to him than the lasting treasure Jesus has promised to any who give anything up for his sake.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:
If you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, who could endure it? But you are forgiving, God of Israel.

FIRST READING: Wisdom 7: 7-11

RESPONSE:
Fill us with your love that we may rejoice.

SECOND READING: Letter of the Hebrews 4: 12-13

ACCLAMATION:
Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father,
Lord of heaven and earth,
for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom
to mere children.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 10: 17-30

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:
The rich suffer want and go hungry, but nothing shall be lacking to those who fear the Lord.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION:
Almighty Father,
may the body and blood of your Son,
give us a share in his life,
for he is Lord for ever and ever.
