Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Psalter Week 1

Christ's suffering and death is a ransom for many

Christ's great love for us is shown in the way he was prepared to pay the debt of our sin with his own life. Through his agony and death we are brought back and saved. However cruelly we are treated in life, however severely tempted, we know that Christ our brother has been in this place too; so that he understands, sympathises and has the power to bring resurrection into every deadly, impossible situation.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

I call upon you, God, for you will answer me; bend your ear and hear my prayer. Guard me as the pupil of your eye; hide me in the shade of your wings.

FIRST READING: Isaiah 53: 10-11

RESPONSE:

May your love be upon us, O Lord, as we place all our hope in you.

SECOND READING: Letter to the Hebrews 4: 14-16

ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord; no one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Mark 10: 35-45

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

See how the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those who hope in his love, that he may rescue them from death and feed them in time of famine.

PRAYER AFTER HOLY COMMUNION:

Lord,
may this eucharist help us to remain faithful.
May it teach us the way to eternal life.
